

Unto God, Who Knows Our Every Weakness

1. Un - to God, who knows our ev - ery weak - ness, With faith we lift our hearts in
 2. Though the task be great that lies be - fore us, We__ trust in one di - vine - ly
 3. Lord, ac - cept the hum - ble con - se - cra - tion of our lives, our tal - ents to ty prayer, Ask - ing in hu - mill - i - ty and meek - ness, For his strong, Know - ing well at last we'll be vic - to - rious; We will cause, Till thy word is preached in ev - ery na - tion And all love, his di - rec - tion, and his care. In these lat - ter days, with songs of praise, We pray that the time will not be long.

 men have a know - lege of thy laws.

all must help to spread the gos - pel sto - ry, Our ev - ery deed from sin be freed Till Zi - on we__ re - deem.

Text: Albert McCullough, 1901-1961.

Tune: Hawaiian melody.