

When we learn to walk in kindness

What a strong and happy people

C F C

1. When we learn to walk in kind-ness, wear the smile, for-get the frown: When we
 2. When the ser-vants of the Mas-ter each and all shall cast a-side Ev-'ry
 3. When the min-i-sters of Je-sus, be they small or be they great, From the
 4. When no two of all our num-ber, Lord, shall long-er be at strife, When we

G7 C C7

3

glad-ly shall for-give men full and free; Ev-'ry small and bit-ter en-vy, ev-'ry grie-vance, ev-'ry ha-tred and be free To for-get the pet-ty quar-rels and the Pro-phets to the dea-cons bow the knee, Bi-shops, Tea-chers, and a-pos-tles have more walk in love and mer-cy close to thee, We shall know a joy-ful ser-vice, we shall

F Fm D7 G7 C F C

6

mal-ice tram-pled down, What a strong and hap-py peo-ple we shall be!
 grud-ges that di-vide, What a strong and hap-py peo-ple we shall be!
 love and less de-bate, What a strong and hap-py peo-ple we shall be!
 find a-bun-dant life- What a strong and hap-py peo-ple we shall be!

F C G7

9

What a hap-py, hap-py, What a strong and hap-py peo-ple we shall be! What a

C C7 F Cdim7 D7 G7 C F C

14

hap-py, hap-py, What a strong and hap-py peo-ple we shall be!

Text: Elbert A. Smith, 1871-1959.

Tune: J. H. Kurzenknabe, 1840-?.