

Let Us Pray For One Another

C F

1. Let us pray for one a - noth - er, For the day is fa - ding
 2. We are walk - ing down time's vis - ta; We are ver - y near the
 3. Pray in faith, and pray un - ceas - ing, To the God we love and
 4. It is wan - ing on t'ward mid - night; Soon we'll hear the watch - man

C G7 C

4

fast And the night is grow - ing dar - ker, While the scourge goes flam - ing past; We can end; Let us pray that God the Fa - ther, Will his guid - ing Spir - it send. Now the trust, For our prayers are much a - vail - ing if we walk up - right and just. Be not say, "See, the Son of God is com - ing; Go and meet him on the way!" That our

F C F C

9

see it in the dark - ness Clo - sing round our nar - row way, And the foe be - comes more dare - ing, Know - ing well the lat - ter day; 'Tis the wea - ry of ex - hort - ing; Heed the les - son of each day; And that lamps may then be burn - ing bright e - nough to guard our way. And that snare are grow - ing thick - er; For each oth - er let us pray.

Dm C

13

 strength of his de - spair - ing; For each oth - er let us pray.
 we may be un - wav - 'ring. For each oth - er let us pray.
 we may share his glo - ry. For each oth - er let us pray.

Text: David Hyrum Smith, 1844-1904.

Tune: From Saints' Harmony, 1899.