

Tell Me Brother, Worn and Weary

Are You Witnessing For Him

D

1. Tell me, broth - er, worn and wea - ry toil - ing o'er life's path - way dim, Are you
2. Are you watch - ing by the way - side For the faint - ing ones who fall? Do you
3. Have you made a con - se - cra - tion Of your earth - ly time and store? Have you shed - ding light for Je - sus, Are you wit - ness - ing for hem? Are you take them to the Sav - ior, Who has prom - ised rest to all? Do you placed them on the al - tar? Then the Mas - ter asks no more; Thus, O seek - ing for the sin - ners, Those whom Je - sus died to win? Are you love to tell of Je - sus more than all the world be - side? Does it Christ - ian, may we jour - ney, Show - ing forth the Sav - ior's praise, With our

3 G D A7

5 D

7 G D A7 D Refrain point - ing to the fount - ain That can wash a - way their sin? Tell me, bring a heaven - ly bless - ing With God's peo - ple to a - bide?

lamps all bright - ly burn - ing That the world may catch its rays.

9 G D A7 D G

broth - er, worn and wea - ry, Toil - ing o'er life's path - way dim; Are you shed - ding light for

14 D D G D A7 D G D

Je - sus? Are you wit - ness - ing for him?

Text: Alice M. Batchelder.

Tune: James H. Fillmore, 1849-1936.