

Behold the Savior at Your Door

D G D A

1. Be - hold the Sav - ior at your door, Your kind - est, tru - est friend, Is
 2. Oh, yes, the bless - ed Son of God, Though Lord of all a - bove, Now
 3. "If" an - y - one will hear my voice And o - pen un - to me, I'll

5 D G D A E7 A

seek - ing en - trance to your heart, Your life with his to blend. The paus - es at your low - ly door, And speaks in tones of love. The sup with him and he with me, And friends we'll al - ways be."

9 D A D

Sav - ior's knock - ing at your door, And ask - ing en - trance in; He's knock - ing, ask - ing o'er and o'er; O o - pen un - to him.

13 G D A7 D

Text: W. H. Bagby, 19th century, U.S.

Tune: James H. Rosecrans, 19th century, U.S.